Highlights of the 2013 Season

Twenty-thirteen was a good year for the Land & Garden Preserve. The weather was great for growing plants and visitation in both gardens was excellent. The Meeting House on the western side of the Azalea Garden pond was renovated in memory of Beth Straus, former Preserve Director and Chair of the Azalea Garden Committee. The renovation includes a lovely meeting room and the addition of a public restroom equipped with a Clivus Multrum composting toilet installed to protect the water quality of the Asticou pond. The official opening of the building will take place in the spring of 2014. Thuya Garden boasts a new butterfly garden in memory of Nell Williams Reath, a newly designed ADA entrance and path to the borders made possible by a grant from Kathryn Davis, and a new woodland area on the eastern side of the garden built in memory of Elinor Hempelmann. Sadly, the Preserve lost a dear friend with the passing of Elise Felton of Southwest Harbor in March. We are grateful that many of her own plants and a great deal of her spirit will live on forever in the Azalea Garden.

The first ArtWorks! to benefit the Land & Garden Preserve was held in late July at the Asticou Inn. The exhibit and sale of fine art, inspired by our lands and gardens, was a huge success, raising income for both the Preserve and the individual artists. A second ArtWorks! exhibit is being planned for 2015.

The mission of the Land & Garden Preserve is to preserve, for public enjoyment, the aesthetic and spiritual heritage of the Thuya Properties, the Asticou Azalea Garden, and future historic landscapes in the town of Mount Desert that come to us by bequest - most notably the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden and surrounding lands. The Preserve is a public charity and relies entirely on gate receipts, contributions from our friends, neighbors, and visitors, and earnings from endowment funds.

For more information on our activities, history, and other publications, please visit our website, www.gardenpreserve.org and follow us on Facebook. We are grateful to dedicated staff members, directors, committee members, and volunteers for making possible the fulfillment of the Preserve’s mission to preserve beauty, history, and culture in our community. ~Carole Plenty, CEO

2013 Financial Report

Fund Balances and Summary of Activities: The assets of the Preserve grew by $4.5 million, largely due to investment growth and bequests. Seventy-three percent of the endowment funds are restricted for the future care and maintenance of the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Garden.
